ASSIGNMENT-2

CLASS - VI

ENGLISH

Q1: Read the Unseen passage given below:

As a young prince, Dasharatha once went hunting .He had the skill of shooting an arrow on a target that was out of sight by merely listening to its sound . Upon reaching the bank of the Sarayu, he heard the gargling sound of an animal drinking water. He at once shot an arrow in the direction of the sound.Unfortunately the target happened to be a young boy named Shraavan Kumar, who was collecting water from the river.

Dasharatha was in deep anguish seeing the dying boy. The boy told Dasharatha to rush the water to his aged blind parents who were very thirsty . Saying thus,he breathed his last. Dasharatha guided the boy's parents to the bank of the river and helped them perform the last rites of their son. Grieving over the loss of their dear son, who was their only support , they cursed Dasharatha that he would also die of anguish and grief of separation from his son. Then they breathed their last.

Dasharatha now feared that the curse would come true. Soon after, he passed away in grief of separation from his beloved son.
